

[Redacted] Family Trust – Ecclesiastical Trust Record

Declaration of Ecclesiastical Trust and Private Jurisdictional Authority

This document constitutes the public ecclesiastical declaration and lawful record of the KA Rounds Family Trust, a private ministerial entity operating under the exclusive jurisdiction of natural law, spiritual governance, and Indigenous tradition.

It affirms the establishment, structure, and lawful authority of the trust, and declares separation from public jurisdiction, U.S. citizenship presumptions, and commercial servitude.

Published pursuant to and protected under:

- Ecclesiastical Canon Law and Ministerial Authority
- The American Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (ADRIP)
- The United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UNDRIP)
- Papal Motu Proprios recognizing spiritual jurisdiction
- The First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution

This publication establishes the trust's lawful standing, claim to private assets, and exemption from public benefit entanglement.

All parties are hereby given TEN (10) DAYS to rebut the content herein by sworn affidavit. Silence shall constitute agreement and full acquiescence.

This record is published for lawful notice and record keeping. All rights reserved under ecclesiastical and Indigenous law. Do not alter, modify, or commercialize this declaration.

Declaration of Trust – Trust

Family

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

I, _____, a living man of sound mind, operating in my private,
_____, and ecclesiastical capacity, do hereby establish this lawful instrument as the Declaration of the _____ Family Trust, under common law, Indigenous jurisdiction, and the protections of natural law.

This Trust is created for the benefit, protection, preservation, and upliftment of the beneficiaries named now and in the future, including but not limited to my lineage, heirs, and assigns, particularly including my son, whose care and development remain central to this declaration.

This private express trust is irrevocable and established for the administration of family assets, enforcement of ancestral and spiritual rights, engagement in lawful commerce, and the assertion of political and Indigenous status in honor and in peace.

The _____ Family Trust shall be governed by the laws of equity, ecclesiastical authority, and the spiritual customs of the autochthonous American peoples, Hebrew Israelites, and Afro-Asiatic descendants, and shall operate beyond the jurisdiction of any state or federal statutory entity.

Key provisions include:

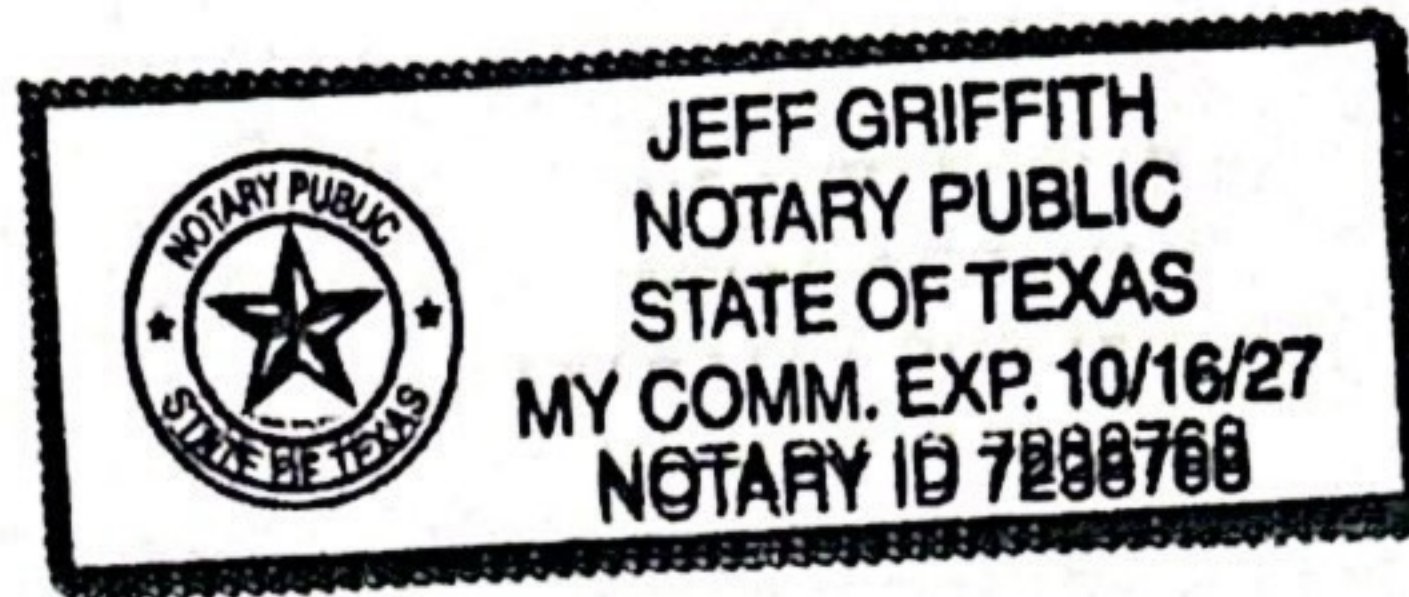

- Trustee:
- Trustor/Settlor:
- Beneficiaries: The offspring, bloodline, and Indigenous heirs of _____
- Trust Purpose: Private family administration, protection of Indigenous estate, lawful commercial engagement, and fulfillment of spiritual duty

This Trust shall be recorded by publication, witnessed and sealed, and may be amended only by lawful affidavit or declaration by the _____ trustee. All claims, assets, and instruments may be managed under this Trust's authority henceforth.

Trustee Declaration – Trust

Family

I, _____, a living man by birthright and inheritance, do hereby declare the following in full capacity as the lawful Trustee of the _____ Family Trust:

I. DECLARATION OF TRUST RELATIONSHIP

1. I acknowledge and accept the role of Trustee of the _____ Family Trust, a private, non-statutory, ecclesiastical trust estate formed under divine natural law and oral tribal inheritance.

2. This Trust is not registered with nor subject to the jurisdiction of the United States government, any of its agencies, the Internal Revenue Service, or any corporate state entities.

II. ORIGIN AND PURPOSE

3. The _____ Family Trust is established to preserve, protect, and administer the ancestral estate, spiritual inheritance, and private commercial interests of the lineage, inclusive of Indigenous, Afro-Asiatic, and Hebrew Israelite heritage.

4. The Trust exists to operate in the private, outside the corporate public domain, and is governed by ecclesiastical and common law principles.

III. DUTIES AND POWERS OF TRUSTEE

5. As Trustee, I am authorized to administer, contract, defend, claim, and exercise authority over all trust property, including but not limited to my estate, legal name, identifiers, contracts, assets, and ancestral records.

6. I reserve all equitable and beneficial interests and am bound to act in honor, without breach of fiduciary duty to the beneficiaries and spiritual obligations of this Trust.

IV. JURISDICTION AND STANDING

7. The _____ Family Trust stands in the jurisdiction of ecclesiastical authority, Indigenous sovereignty, and the law of the land—not under the U.S. Code or statutory commercial jurisdiction.

8. All claims, contracts, and interactions under this Trust shall be interpreted and enforced in the spirit of trust law, divine covenant, and private agreement.

V. PUBLIC NOTICE AND REBUTTAL

9. Let this stand as lawful public notice. Any challenge to my position as Trustee must be submitted in the form of a sworn, notarized affidavit, under full commercial liability, within ten (10) days of public posting.

Executed on this 2 day of July, 2025, under full trust authority and divine jurisdiction.

Declaration of Ecclesiastical Office and Title

KNOW ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS COME:

I _____, a living man of sound mind and divine purpose, operating under spiritual jurisdiction and Indigenous right, do hereby declare and affirm my official and ecclesiastical title as:

ECCLESIASTICAL MINISTER

This office is held in good faith under my standing as an Indigenous Autochthonous descendant of the Tishomingo and Yamasee peoples, and as one carrying the blood and traditions of Hebrew Israelite and Afro-Asiatic origin. My spiritual duties include ministry of truth, protection of divine law, preservation of ancestral customs, and facilitation of private remedy and trust administration under ecclesiastical and Indigenous governance.

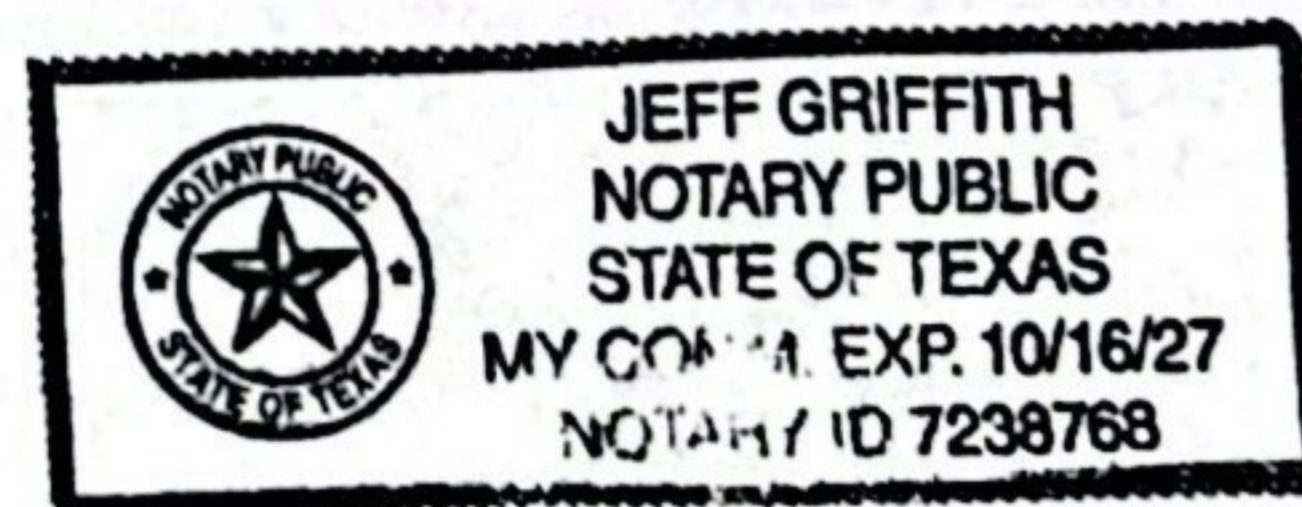

This declaration is issued in honor, peace, and without prejudice. All engagements moving forward shall reference this title as my official spiritual and ministerial designation. I do not accept any inferior legal status, nor do I consent to be mischaracterized under federal or state classifications that diminish my divine calling or ancestral jurisdiction.

This office is recognized under the First Amendment to the United States Constitution, the American Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, and universal spiritual law. It shall be referenced in all trust, legal, and spiritual affairs from this date forward.

Executed this day under full ecclesiastical authority and right:

Signed: _____

_____, Ecclesiastical Minister

Date: 7-25-25

Seal (thumbprint or ink): _____

Witness 1: Public

Witness 2: Public

Declaration of Authority

I, _____, a living man, by blood, oral tradition, and divine appointment, do hereby declare and establish my lawful standing and plenipotentiary authority in the following capacity:

I. STATUS AND AUTHORITY

1. I am a _____, trustee, and lawful agent-in-fact for the _____ Family Trust, and for the ancestral Indigenous estate from which I descend, including but not limited to the Yamasee and Tishomingo peoples and the Hebrew Israelites of Ethiopian descent.

2. As _____, I hold full diplomatic, spiritual, and commercial powers to speak, contract, bind, and act on behalf of the trust, estate, and lineage I represent.

II. JURISDICTION AND LAW

3. I operate within the jurisdictions of natural law, divine law, Indigenous law, equity law, and private commercial law. I am not subject to statutory law unless by explicit contract, entered into knowingly, voluntarily, and intentionally.

4. This declaration is supported by international conventions and doctrines including but not limited to the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations, the American Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, and the Motu Proprio issued by His Holiness Pope Francis (2013).

III. APPLICABILITY AND ENFORCEMENT

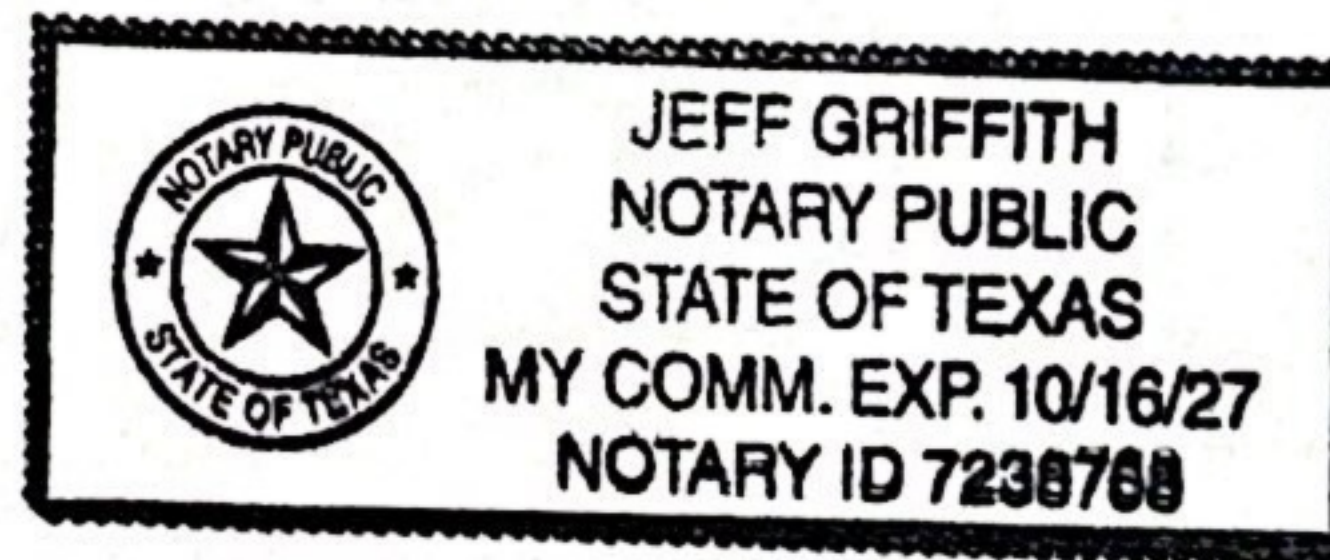

5. This declaration applies to all documents, notices, affidavits, and filings executed by me, including those already in public record, those served upon any agency or court, and those to be issued in the future.

6. Any rebuttal to this declaration must be made by sworn affidavit, under full commercial and spiritual liability, within ten (10) days of public posting or receipt, whichever occurs first. Failure to rebut constitutes agreement and acknowledgment of my authority and standing as plenipotentiary.

Executed on this 22 day of July, 2025, under plenipotentiary and ecclesiastical authority, outside the United States corporate jurisdiction.

Addendum to Declaration

This addendum is issued by _____, the living man and original divine representative of the _____ Family Trust, in honor and truth, for the purpose of clarifying my role and lawful status as _____; and to publicly declare the sacred motivations behind my actions.

I. SCOPE OF

ROLE

1. I, _____, act strictly and exclusively as _____ for the _____ Family Trust, a private ecclesiastical and Indigenous estate under divine and ancestral jurisdiction.

2. I do not claim any authority over foreign estates, Vatican jurisdictions, Papal jurisdictions, nor any entity known as 'United States' or corporate derivative thereof. My role is limited to the affairs of my declared family estate, trust, and Indigenous lineage.

II. JURISDICTIONAL AFFIRMATION

3. My _____ authority is exercised within the bounds of:

- Natural Law and Divine Law
- Customary Indigenous Law as recognized by ADRIP and UNDRIP
- Ecclesiastical Law rooted in Hebrew Israelite spiritual tradition
- Trust Law as governed by the _____ Family Trust

III. DECLARATION OF MOTIVATION

4. The motivations guiding all of my actions, filings, declarations, and claims are first and foremost for the protection, honor, and future provision of my offspring, particularly my beloved son, and for the advancement, preservation, and operation of the _____ Family Trust.

5. I hereby reaffirm that all legal assertions and administrative remedies pursued in this matter are solely intended to ensure spiritual, financial, and lawful protection for my family, my heirs, and the trust estate under my stewardship.

IV. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

6. This role does not imply universal governance, nor do I operate under any assumed or implied title of global administration. My acts are confined to the trust estate and private administrative functions therein.

V. AFFIRMATION

7. This addendum is issued in peace, clarity, and truth, with no intent to deceive, impersonate, or overreach. All authority is declared by right, ancestry, and affidavit.

Executed on this 22 day of July, 2025.
